   C. Motion to accept made by Pat, seconded by Shelly, motion carried

VI. Treasurer’s Report, provided by Judy Porta, see attached
   A. Debt payment didn’t show up this month, should show up in December
   B. Final accounting maybe short about $30,000, but Judy doesn’t know for sure that it will be that high
   C. Haverford Funds are still ahead, even though we took the $35,000 for debt reduction
   D. Motion to accept made by Suzanne, seconded by Eric, motion carried

VII. Old Business
   A. Sue shared that she made some inroads on legal issues and will report next month

VIII. New Business
   A. Calendars
1. Lori presented the Library calendar for 2018 Holidays and Closings

B. Board calendar

1. Formal board meetings will continue alternating with committee meetings

2. January meeting will be a formal meeting. The final meeting of the year will also be a formal meeting on November 28, 2018.

C. Public Innovator’s Lab: Turning Outward - Pat McKeon, Sue Geiger and Lori Schwabenbauer

1. Pat, Lori and Sue presented an overview of the training that they attended, along with Sarah Beyer and Lisa Sweet

2. Pat shared specifics as to how our library will implement this initiative
   a) The goal is to gain a better understanding of our community - increase our relevance and impact
   b) We will have conversations with community members using various tools, including formal Community Conversations. Then, we will use the information gained to become more connected to the community and able to facilitate change
   c) We will analyze and share what we learn with the board and the community members who participate
   d) We will continue with ongoing training with the Harwood Foundation and PA Commonwealth Library

3. It was suggested that this initiative could be woven into future grant proposals

D. Library Budget - 2018, presented by Judy Porta, see attached

1. Judy noted that the total budget will be $449,140, which is $66,000 more than the current year. She noted increases in the following:
   a) building maintenance - budgeted, but hopefully we won’t have to spend
   b) professional services - website, attorney fees
   c) wages - 2.2% cost of living raise and a new full-time staff person (part-time person going to full-time)

2. Income - Donations: Judy is budgeting:
   a) $3000 from the Friends of the Avon Grove Library
b) $11,000 from grants

c) $12,000 from the fund drives

3. She indicated that we must use capital reserve and Haverford to make up the shortfall (see Transfers line on page 2)

4. Expenses that are increased are highlighted in pink on the handout

5. This budget keeps debt reduction at $10,000

6. This is a very ambitious budget - but will be less so, if several of the large expenses that we have budgeted for don’t transpire

7. Discussion:

   a) Board members felt that this budget is reasonable and responsible

   b) It was requested that Lori submit a new salary schedule that reflects the changes that the finance committee is recommending for us to vote on

8. Motion to approve the 2018 Budget was made by Eric, seconded by Suzanne, motion carried

IX. Committee Reports
