

A Member of the Chester County Library System

Programming for Adults

Library Lecture Series

The Beatles: Band of the Sixties

Friday, April 8, 7 – 8 PM

“The Beatles: Band of the Sixties” with Beatles scholar Aaron Krerowicz. Explore the music of the Fab Four.

Greatest Hits of the Civil War

Friday, May 6, 7 – 8 PM

“Greatest Hits of the Civil War,” a performance with notes by music historian Rick Spencer of Catfeather Art & Music.

Learn to Knit

April 9, May 14, 2:30–3:30 PM

Sign up for a free 15-minute knitting lesson where you learn the basics to complete a Project Linus square. Please bring bright-colored worsted weight yarn and size 8 knitting needles.

Knit One, Crochet Too!

2nd and 4th Wednesday, 6:30–8 PM

All skill levels welcome. Free program for teens and adults. Please bring your own materials. Meet in the library.

Table Games

1st and 3rd Tuesday, 12:30–2 PM

Scrabble, Apples to Apples and others are available for adults to use. We meet in the Activity Room with snacks and beverages.

Paper Crafting

1st Thursday at 6:30 PM

Paper crafting program for adults 18 and over. New project each month. Check at the circulation desk for program details. Pre-registration and payment required.

Craft and Create

2nd Thursday 6:30 PM

Gather up your craft projects and get away from the distractions at home. The activity room will be set up for BYO craft time. This program is for adults 18 and over.

Book Club

3rd Thursday of the month at 6:30 PM

Adults, join us for great books and lively discussions. This free program meets in the Activity Room.

- April 21, 2016: Grandma Gatewood's Walk by Ben Montgomery (Longwood Gardens Community Read)
- May 19th: The White Queen by Philippa Gregory
- June 16th: The Passion of Artemisia by Susan Vreeland
- July 21st: Never Let Me Go by Kazuo Ishiguro
- August 18th: The Wright Brothers by David McCullough
- September 15th: Me Before You by Jojo Moyes

Avon Grove Library

117 Rosehill Avenue, West Grove, PA
610-869-2004, www.avongrovelibrary.org

Like us on Facebook for program updates!