FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Looking for a Good Book to Read?

West Grove, PA, March 29, 2016 – Avon Grove Library, a member of the Chester County Library System (CCLS), is promoting resources available through the county library system. This month we are highlighting the book recommendation resources available on the CCLS website www.ccls.org/239/Books.

“NextReads” newsletters come with current book recommendations. There are over 20 diverse genres to choose from including Fantasy, Historical Fiction, Mystery, Nature and Science, Romance, Science Fiction and many more. Using NextReads, readers can select a current newsletter to read, check the NextReads archives to find older recommendations, or sign up to receive the newsletter though email.

Other resources on the CCLS website books page include:

- “Library Reads,” which highlights the top ten books recommended each month by librarians across the country: libraryreads.org
- “Indie Next List,” featuring recommendations from independent booksellers: www.indiebound.org/indie-next-list
- “What’s Next,” from the Kent District Library in Michigan, which pinpoints the next book in a series: ww2.kdl.org/libcat/whatsnext.asp

Additional reading recommendation sources can be found at the Avon Grove Library website: www.avongrovelibrary.org/nextreads
