Summer Reading Programs

Preschool (ages 0—4) Adopt a pet dinosaur and take it on reading adventures all summer long!

Elementary (ages 5—11) Earn special patches by attending programs and doing fun activities!

Teens/Adults (ages 12+) Keep track of your reading time for the chance to win a grand prize!

Visit Avon Grove Library and ask the front desk for more information and to sign up!

Ice Cream Making* (Wednesday July 21, 11 AM)

Families/All Ages

Ice cream tastes yummy on a hot summer day! Learn how to make this sweet treat for you and your family using simple ingredients. Registration required. Limit 10 families. Program can be used towards the Mad Chef Summer Reading Patch.

Bilingual Storytime* (Saturday July 24, 10 AM)

Families/All Ages

Join us for a music-themed bilingual storytime with songs, shakys, snacks, and more! Located at West Grove Memorial Park (along Rosehill Avenue next to the West Grove Garage).

Teen Tie Dye Party* (Friday July 23, 5:30 PM)

Grades 6—12

Students in grades 6—12 can join us at the library after hours for pizza, tie-dyeing, and fun! This is an outdoor event. Weather permitting. Registration required.

Truth and Tales About Animal Tails* (Wednesday July 28, 10:30 AM)

Families/All Ages

Have you ever wondered why animals have tails and what they are used for? The answer is really interesting. Animals have different uses for their tails and in this class, we will focus on various live animals and how they use their tails. You can even make your own mermaid tail! Taught by Teachers of Nature: Online Classes. Program can be used towards Zookeeper Summer Reading Patch.

Book Clubs (see calendar for dates)

Book Club for Adults is reading The Killers of the Flower Moon by David Gann

Young @ Heart* is reading Strange the Dreamer by Laini Taylor

Teen Book Club* is reading All the Stars and Teeth by Adalyn Grace
