“Money-Savvy Kids” to Help Parents Promote Financial Skills

WEST GROVE, Pa. – July 13, 2015 – How should parents discuss money with their children, and when? Can children easily learn how to handle finances? Avon Grove Library helps answer these questions with the free presentation “Raising Money-Savvy Kids” on Tuesday, July 21 at 7 p.m.

Presented by Krista Finegan, a local financial advisor with Morgan Stanley, this session will teach parents how to help children earn, save and give responsibly. “Money-Savvy Kids” is not a sales presentation, but rather a chance to get basic information and ask questions.

“This is a great opportunity for parents who want to teach their kids good habits,” said Lori Schwabenbauer, director of Avon Grove Library. “I’m excited to bring Krista here because the library is committed to providing education on important skills like these, to improve the lives of our customers.”

Avon Grove Library and Morgan Stanley are also teaming up to offer other free financial seminars, including “Saving for College” (Tuesday, September 1, 7 p.m) and “Retirement Planning” (Tuesday, September 29, 7 p.m).

The library is located at 117 Rosehill Avenue in the West Grove Borough Building (610-869-2004, www.avongrovelibrary.org). All seminars will be held in the Public Meeting Room.

Avon Grove Library is a vital educational institution, providing equal opportunity for self-directed learning, research assistance and instruction, and enriching experiences for over 30,000 students of all ages in southern Chester County. The library is a member of the Chester County Library System.
