FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

“On Your Mark, Get Set...READ!” Summer Reading Program Begins

West Grove, Pa., May 15, 2016 – Children and their families are invited to celebrate “On your Mark, Get Set...READ!” – the theme of Avon Grove Library’s 2016 Summer Reading Program. In honor of this program, the library will be hosting a Summer Reading Kick-Off Party on Saturday, June 11 beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Highlights of the Kick-Off Party include performances of “Magicomedy” with Richard and Joanne Gustafson, internationally-acclaimed entertainers, at 10 a.m. and noon. Several local authors will be present to read from and sign copies of their books. Also featured are balloon sculptures, crafts, refreshments and more! Signups for programs will begin at the Kick-Off Party.

The main event at the Kick-Off will be free registration for the Summer Reading Club. Participants will receive a game board to record the books read over the summer. When specific goals are reached, children will bring the game board back to the library and receive a reading prize. Throughout the summer, there will be a variety of programs, drawings, prizes and contests, so families are encouraged to stop by the library as often as possible.
